REMOVAL OF ENCROACHMENTS BY NDMC
Muqueem Shri Mohammed

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the New Delhi Municipal Council had removed encroachments from Shastri Market, Nirman Bhavan and Yashwarvt Place in February, 2005;
- (b) if so, the details thereof and the present position in this regard;
- (c) whether the New Delhi Municipal Council is not taking any action to remove encroachments from the payments along the roads in front and the back of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital, and from the pavements in front of Udyan Marg, Central Secretariat, Bhai Veer Singh Marg, Gole Market, K-Block, H-Block and P&T Quarters;
- (d) if so, the reasons therefor; and
- (e) the time by which the above encroachments are likely to be removed?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD):

- (a) and (b) New Delhi Municipal Council (NDMC) has reported to have conducted 56 raids and made 62 removals from Dr. Rajendra Prasad Road (Shastri Market) in February, 2005.
- (c) to (e) NDMC has reported that there is no encroachment in the areas under reference. Action for removal of squatters is taken regularly as an ongoing process.
